

How Does Setting Affect a Character?

Cloze Notes

How does the setting affect the story's characters?

- The setting, or _____ and when the story takes place, affects the characters.
- The setting shows what _____ the characters are in. It shows what the characters may be _____.

For example:

If the setting is at a fair, the characters are going to be eating cotton candy, playing _____, and going on _____.

What if the setting is at the library? How will the setting affect the characters?

(Answer here.)

Setting affects characters

Setting can also affect the _____ of characters. Characters are going to _____ and _____ different things in different places and times.

For example:

- Someone from the _____ would speak and act very _____ compared to someone in 2014.

How do you answer a question on how setting affects plot?

1. Figure out the _____.
2. Think about the _____. What might the characters be doing at this time?
3. Think about the _____. What might the characters be doing at this place?

Your turn.

How does setting affect the characters of the selection that we are reading?

(Answer here.)